An Opportunity to Secure a Home at Reno.

200 LOTS FOR SALE

The manager of the Lake estate, in order to enhance the value of the property of the estate, as well as assist in

Building Up the Town of Reno,

Has determined to offer two hundred fine building lots for sale, some of which are situated in the central part of town, and are very desirable for business purposes. The proposed site for homes is immediately South of the Truckee river, and its elevation affords a magnificent view of the mountains in the distance, and the valley and town near at hand. A more perfect place for an elegant home could not be selected. The soil is good, and an abundant supply of water will be sold with each lot. The health of the locality cannot be questioned, as its elevation assures a perfect system of sewerage. Gas mains will be laid through the streets free of cost, for the benefit of those desiring to use them. It is also intended by the owners to lay out a park on the South side of the Truckee river, covering 20 acres, in which the public may enjoy the pleasure of driving, fishing and boating.

The educational advantages of Reno are well known, and the business prospects of the town are assured beyond a doubt. Purchasers of these lots may feel confident that the best of terms will be offered, and they will be fairly dealt with. For further particulars, address —Wizard Oil at Geo. Thaxter's.

ALL MORTS.

—Sullivan broke his wrist at Minneapolis, also his record.

—Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the most potent blood purifier, and a fountain of health and strength. Be wise in time. All baneful infections are promptly removed by this unequalled alterative.

—In Sharon, New York State the discovery is made that the Young Men's Christian Association is in league with the gamblers of the city and gets 50 per cent. of the winnings to make no protest against the games.

—The pension bills in favor of Mrs. Gen. Logan and Mrs. Gen. Blaine have been reported on adversely by the House Committee, on the grounds that such pensions ought only to be granted to widows whose husbands died from the effect of wounds received in battle.

—Ayer's Hair Vigor improves the beauty of the hair and promotes its growth. It imparts an attractive appearance, a delightful and lasting perfume. While it stimulates the roots, cleanses the scalp, and adds elegance to luxuriance, its effects are enduring; and thus it proves itself to be the best and cheapest article for toilet use.

The Trouble With Domestic Wine.

The Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution says that the trouble with domestic wine that has supplanted whisky in that city (under the operation of prohibition), "is its procrastination. It puts off until tomorrow the drunk it should bring today. Few things are quicker on the trigger than the whisky with which Atlanta was wont to whoop herself up. It made you drunk with promptness and exactness. The domestic wine, on the other hand, is vague and uncertain. 'You don't know when to take it on,' said a moderate drinker. 'If you load up on Saturday night it's just as apt as not to tangle you up in church on Sunday. I comprehended a bottle the other day, and I went to dine with my wife's mother the next day. Don't you think, the fool thing took hold of me right there, and I had to prop myself to keep from sliding under the table. When a man loads up with this domestic wine he oughtn't to make an engagement until it has had its drunk out. It may wait a week, but it is dead sure to trip you up before it gives up.'"

Herrmann.

The prestidigitator Herrmann began an engagement at the Grand Last evening, and the large audience that greeted him was well pleased and unmistakably bewildered. The field in which Herrmann works is one in which many good performers have appeared during the past fifteen or twenty years, but it may be doubted if he has an equal. Perhaps his rivals may surpass him in certain special features, but none of them give such general satisfaction, and above all, none of them approach him in neatness of execution. What he does is done with a finish thoroughly artistic, and this is particularly noticeable in acts of pure legerdemain, where stage machinery is not called into requisition. In fact, his least elaborate feats are the most difficult to explain, for the very reason that they cannot be attributed to out side agencies.—Chicago Tribune.

The C. P. Taxes.

The grand total of the valuation of all property assessed to the Central Pacific Railroad in Nevada for 1886 was $6,460,826.90. The average value of the main track per mile is $11,134.17; side track $5,217.06; telegraph $52.18; rolling stock per mile of main track, $1,644.33; other property per mile of main track, $426.14; average value of property (land excepted) per mile of main track $13,638.30; average value of land per acre, $1.29. The tax for State purposes was $38,147.44, and for county purposes $2,854.95, a total of $151,002.39.

A GOOD BILL.

Which Will Knock the Political Strikers Out.

Senator Noteware's bill to prevent the borders of political strikers following candidates all over the country is as follows:

"An Act relating to elections approved March 12, 1873." The proposed amendment reads as follows:

SEC. 1. That section eighty-eight of an Act approved March 12th, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, entitled "An Act relating to elections," be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows.

SEC. 88. Every person who, by threats, menaces, bribery, or any corrupt means, either directly or indirectly, attempts to influence an elector in giving his vote, or to deter him from giving the same, or attempts by any means to awe, restrain, hinder or disturb any elector in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, or furnishes any elector wishing to vote, who cannot read, with a ticket, informing or giving such elector to understand that it contains a name written or printed thereon different from the name which is written or printed thereon, or defrauds any elector at such election by deceiving and causing such elector to vote for a different person for any office than he intended or desired to vote for, or who, being Inspector, Judge or Clerk of any election, while acting as such, induces, or attempts to induce any elector, either by menace or reward, or promise thereof, to vote differently from what such elector intended or desired to vote, and also every person who shall solicit, or receive or express a desire to receive any money, pecuniary aid, favor or reward, at any general or special election, or at any time within one year previous to such election, for his own vote or for his influence in securing the vote of any other person, shall be guilty of felony, punishable by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars, or imprisonment in the State Prison not exceeding five years, or by both such fine and imprisonment, and shall thereafter be deprived of the privilege of an elector.

Official Sobriety.

The bill compelling officials to keep sober during their term of office is in all respects a good one. It applies to both State and county officers, and its provisions range from the Supreme Bench down to the ward Constables. When a private individual hires a man to work for him he is at liberty to dispense with his services when he finds that he neglects his work through drunkenness. The taxpayers of the State should have the same right. Drunkenness is a failing with many officials in Nevada. There is hardly a town in the State that has not at least one county officer who is given to neglect of public duty through ever indulgence in liquor. State officers have more than once during the past fifteen years been hopelessly drunk on the streets of Carson.

The taxpayers have the right to the sober faculties and best abilities of the men they hire to perform official duties. The bill should pass and its provisions should be carried out. If it saves from a drunkard's grave any official in the whole State, that man will owe a debt of gratitude to the framers of the bill the longest day he lives. If it removes from office a man who has become incompetent through drink the debt of gratitude will be due from the taxpayers.

The "Appeal."

The APPEAL will be served during the session to every member of the Legislature. Several Democrats have called at the office to state that they will not pay for the APPEAL unless they order it, as they do not believe in furnishing money to the enemy. This is a doctrine we have always held to be good. Any Democrat, or Republican either for that matter, who does not wish to pay for the APPEAL, will be under no obligations to do so. The paper is left at each desk to give the members a chance to read it in the morning. They can pay or not; just as it suits them. No journal on top of earth can beat this paper on cordiality to members of the Legislature. That's what we're here for.

—Let it be positively understood that Schneider & Simas, the photographers opposite the Mint, are the artists selected to make the official State group for 1887.
